

Notes: 24 Feb 2003

Formatting Cell/Range/Row/Column

Select Cell/Range/Row/Column

Select from Format/Cells Menu Bar or right-click on selected block and choose Format Cells

Number Tab

Options: General / Number / Currency / Percent / Fraction

Alignment Tab

Options: Horizontal / Vertical / Text Control

Subnote: Merge Cells

Font

Subnote: Font color can be select here for from the Formatting Bar

Border

Patterns (Cell Shading)

Subnote: Both border and cell shading can be selected here for from the Formatting Bar

Conditional Formatting

Select Cell/Range/Row/Column

Select Format/Conditional Formatting from Menu Bar to control Font, Border, Patterns based on a cell content condition

Paste Special

1. Used to paste values to alternate parts of a spreadsheet where the values are determined by formulas which would not apply
2. Used to transpose ranges so that rows and columns are interchanged

File/Save As

Allows the spreadsheet to be saved to a format readable by alternate programs.

Caution: Loss of formulas usually occurs

Printing

Worksheet vs Range

Print area by default is worksheet

Can be changed by selecting File/Print Area

Header Rows & Columns

Can be set by selecting File/Page Setup and choosing the Sheet tab

Fit to (force printout to be on a specified number of pages - usually one)

Can be set by selecting File/Page Setup and choosing the Page tab

Margins, Centering

Can be set by selecting File/Page Setup and choosing the Margins tab

Portrait vs Landscape

Can be set by selecting File/Page Setup and choosing the Page tab